DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-48 and 55, drawn to a cosmetic product comprising at least a first composition and a second composition, the first composition comprising at least one dye in a physiologically acceptable medium, the second composition comprising at least one second dye in a physiologically acceptable medium, the first dye being photo chromic and the second dye being at least one goniochromatic coloring agent, classified in class 424, subclass 063.
- II. Claims 49-50, drawn to a method of use, classified in class 517, subclass 451.
- III. Claims 51-54, drawn to a kit, classified in class 424, subclass 401.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product. See MPEP § 806.05(h). In the instant case the method of making up the skin can be preformed with any commercially available make-up/cosmetic product.

Art Unit: 1615

Inventions I and III are directed to related compositions. The related inventions are distinct if the (1) the inventions as claimed are either not capable of use together or can have a materially different design, mode of operation, function, or effect; (2) the inventions do not overlap in scope, i.e., are mutually exclusive; and (3) the inventions as claimed are not obvious variants. See MPEP § 806.05(j). In the instant case, the inventions as claimed have a materially different design. A cosmetic kit can include any commercially available cosmetic product. Furthermore, the inventions as claimed do not encompass overlapping subject matter and there is nothing of record to show them to be obvious variants.

Inventions II and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, the different inventions have materially different designs and modes of operation. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

I. First Dye:

A. 2H-Naphtho[2,1-b]pyran of Formula (I)

B. 3H-Naphtho[2,1-b]pyran of Formula (II)

If applicant elects A, then the additional elections of species is required.

ID of R₁: A specific species disclosed in the claims must be selected.

ID of R₅: A specific species disclosed in the claims must be selected.

ID of R₆: A specific species disclosed in the claims must be selected.

ID of R₇: A specific species disclosed in the claims must be selected.

If applicant elects B, then the additional elections of species is required.

ID of R₁: A specific species disclosed in the claims must be selected.

ID of R₂: A specific species disclosed in the claims must be selected.

ID of R₅: A specific species disclosed in the claims must be selected.

ID of R₆: A specific species disclosed in the claims must be selected.

II. Goniochromatic coloring agent:

A. multilayer interface structures

B. liquid crystal coloring agents

If applicant elects A, then the additional election is required:

Materials disclosed in claim 15.

If applicant elects B, then the additional election is required:

Polymerized monomer mixture disclosed in claim 16.

The species are independent or distinct because they have materially different properties and functions. Applicant is required to identify claims reading on the elected species.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, Claim 1 is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species.
